After having rolled 75 per cent, of the games, any bowler may direct the bowling committee to consider the average he has made as final. On the other hand, if he so wishes, he may continue his average, improving it possibly, until the end of his league schedule. The Springfield-Kansas City match scheduled for the week ending December 3, 1921, was postponed at the request of Springfield due to storm break conditions. The annual telegraph tournament will be conducted in the latter part of April. The prizes for this event will be worth trying for. There is a large trophy for the fiveman event, a trophy for the doubles and a bowling ball with carrier for the singles and one for the high total of all events. Any team will be eligible for this tournament whether it is in the weekly tournament or not. A bowling league has been organized in Chicago, which is known as the Testroom Bowling League, composed of our This is the way they do it in Minneapolis, as pictured by Miss Gladys Hansen. With the bowlers in the Kansas City telephone league rounding into their 13th week, we still find the Long Lines teams in 1st and 3rd places. As our teams are tied for these berths, we expect to maintain these positions when we meet our next opponents. The following is the ranking of the teams early...
