

The Sins of Eden: Murder in the Park

By Patricia Hickman Lampley

Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A sadistic serial killer is on the loose in the once idyllic community of Eden Beach. In the summer of 1973, Michael Reese and his friends are looking forward to their senior year of high school until two dead bodies are found on the lawn of their favorite neighborhood park. Brothers, Phillip and Johnny Mulu, have been murdered and their friends, a newly formed but vicious gang born in the Oakwood Housing Projects, go on the rampage, looking for justice. Anybody who knew the two brothers said the murders had to have something to do with gangs since Johnny, known as the Cookie Monster, had been running with one gang or another since junior high. They figured Phillip the more level headed of the two was just in the wrong place at the wrong time. But when Mike's little sister, Maddie, overhears a conversation hinting that Phillip, the ladies man, may have had a sugar mama, it changes the face of the game. Enemies of the two brothers start to disappear or turn up dead and,...
