Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Planting Trees in School Grounds: And the Celebration of Arbor Day The subject of this little pamphlet is one that is rapidly rising in favor with the business community and the political economists. From the attention that has been given it by the press, and the facts disseminated by societies like ours, the thoughtful, intelligent citizen who studies the causes of the decline in national resources - how countries once famous for their fertility of soil and salubrity of climate and dense population have become desolate wastes, unfitted for the habitation of man - how some countries have checked the rapid tendency to such desolation and ruin, and recovered their former prosperity - will see that the forests played the most important part in these causes; that their denudation was followed by the decline, and then the destruction of the national resources, while their replanting resulted in reclaiming, and in renewed production. The various and immediate uses to man of trees and their products have caused their rapid destruction, until the threatened dearth in this...
