Ambiguity and Uncertainty. Ambiguity refers to the contradictions, inconsistencies, and fuzziness of reality, preferences, and identities. Uncertainty refers to imprecision in estimates of future consequences which 9 are conditional on present actions. Contingency. Contingencies are outcomes or events that may occur but are not likely or intended. They are possibilities for which the decision maker may or may not prepare depending upon his preferences. Contingencies are dependent on chance. Thus, a contingency may or may not affect a decision makers choice based on his perception of the likelihood of its occurring and the cost associated with it should it occur. J oint Doctrine Decision-Making Process Joint publications outline the intended planning process for joint level operations. J oint operations planning employs an integrated process entailing similar policies and procedures during war and military operations other than war, providing for orderly and coordinated problem...
